PRAYER OF WOODS

I am the heat of your hearth on the cold winter nights
The friendly shade screening you from the summer sun and my fruits are refreshing draughts quenching your thirst as you journey on I am the beam that holds your house
The board of your table, the bed on which you lie and the timber that builds your boat
I am the handle of your hoe, the door of your homestead
The wood of your cradle, and the shell of your coffin
I am the bread of kindness and the flower of beauty
Ye who pass by, listen to my prayer
HARM ME NOT

Så længe vi forholder os til træer, floder, bjerge, marker og oceanerne som egenskaber, som man kan manipulere med efter vores virkelige eller opdigtede behov, naturen er uigennemsigtig og ikke viser os sit sande væsen.

As long as we relate to the trees, the rivers, the mountains, the fields and the oceans as properties which we can manipulate according to our real or fabricated needs, nature remains opaque, and does not reveal to us its true being.
